Couture Accommodations

Dallas now offers the ultimate shopping experience for those who enjoy individualized attention and service. Famed clothier Stanley Korshak has teamed with opulent Hotel Crescent Court to bring guests the ultimate in customized, luxury retail service. Whether that perfect dress for a special event or new fall wardrobe is needed, clients simply book the “dressing room to guest room” service with the hotel in advance. A Stanley Korshak stylist is assigned to contact the guest prior to arrival for a style profile of measurements, favorite looks, fit, colors, designers and more. The stylist chooses a selection of couture clothing, complete with shoes and accessories, which they hand deliver to the room for fitting upon the guest’s arrival. Clients choose which clothing to keep and which pieces to send back. An on-call tailor is available to ensure the perfect fit.

The Crescent says the first-of-its-kind program allows the hotel to continue exceeding guest expectations with lavish customer service that is both personal and customized. The service is available to singles, couples, wedding parties and more. A $3,000 minimum order and overnight stay are required. Contact the hotel for more details. 400 Crescent Court, Dallas, 214-871-3200, www.CrescentCourt.com.
