

Experience A One-Of-A-Kind Stay With These 6 Unique Hotel Services

In the world of luxury travel, we expect to find the best and most lavish of amenities. But some hotels are going above and beyond to attract their clientele. From posh, puppy shopping sprees to a proposal concierge to help you pop the question, here are six places to watch for:

Dressing Room to Guest-Room Concierge - Hotel Crescent Court, Dallas, TX

Located in Uptown Dallas, the Hotel Crescent Court (formerly the Rosewood Crescent) is currently offering the Dressing-Room to Guest-Room Concierge package, a program geared toward global fashion enthusiasts. Through a partnership with Stanley Korshak, the largest independent department store in the country, the 220-room Dallas icon pampers guests with lavish customer service derived from the late Stanley Marcus of Neiman Marcus fame, leaving them impeccably dressed from head-to-toe.

A selection of couture clothing, complete with shoes and accessories for any occasion, will be delivered directly to a guest's room or suite where they can try on the upscale apparel at their leisure, keeping what they please for purchase. All unwanted items are sent back and an on-call tailor is available for any last-minute alterations.

To book, simply call Hotel Crescent Court directly and the hotel will setup the service upon request. A stylist will get in touch with the guest prior to arrival in order to develop a style profile of their measurements, sizes, favorite fits, cuts and looks, as well as flattering color palettes, preferred designers, etc. in addition to confirming the occasion needing to be styled (e.g. day-to-day, event glam, etc.) and the "look and feel" they are going for. The stylist will pull a selection of couture clothing and hand-deliver them directly to the guest's suite prior to arrival complete with any needed shoes and accessories.
